- Support students through increased mental health services
- Potential need for additional elementary teacher
- Improved access for parents with registration for sports programs with new Family ID software
- Potential addition of Data Privacy Program(NYSED and Federal mandates)

Shaping the 2019-2020 Budget

"Small Capital Projects continue..."

In an effort of continuous improvement for the facilities of the Waterford-Halfmoon campus, the District continues to support the annual implementation of New York State's allowance for a $100,000 Small Capital Project. We will continue with our efforts to improve the safety of our staff and students by utilizing the Small Capital Project monies to finance improvements that will update the classroom and office doors and door hardware. These improvements add to the intruder resistance capabilities in our building. This $100,000 cost is included in our budget and is NYS aidable upon completion of the project.
